Dear Parents / Carers

As you are aware Nathaniel Newton Infant School was inspected by Ofsted on 11th and 12th June. I am delighted to be able to share the final report with you. The outcome of the inspection has found that we continue to be a GOOD school. The report will be published on Ofsted's website at some point this week but as parents / carers of the school you are able to see the report before this happens.

We are delighted with the report and following a stringent and thorough inspection over the two days, the inspector's findings detailed on the report are a very accurate reflection of our school. Every inspection leaves a school with areas to develop, the areas identified are not a surprise to us and were already areas of improvement that we had already identified ourselves.

We couldn't do the incredible work that we do without the support of our families, so thank you to all of our families who are so supportive, it really does mean a lot.

I hope you enjoy reading the report.

Yours sincerely

Mrs Forshew
Headteacher
